

High School Notes

Mr. Hall the assistant state superintendent and Mr. Lechliter made our assembly doubly interesting Friday morning, with their short but entertaining talks. The students contribute their part toward making the daily assemblies interesting, on Monday morning, one of the Seniors, Miss Minnie Robertson sang for us, accompanied by Prof. Place.

The Art Exhibit begins today, (Wednesday) and the pictures will be on exhibit on the second and third floors. Ten cents admission will be charged for students and fifteen cents for others on these corridors, but all parents are invited to come and see free of charge, the grade school drawing books and paintings which are on exhibition on the first floor.

Although the base ball team works under disadvantages in not having a diamond on the school grounds, they are doing well and several games are scheduled. Practice games are played every week with M. V. C. second team. Last Friday High School must have had a day off for college scored high on them and they played slow ball in general.

Saturday afternoon, Marshall High School will meet Slater for a base ball game on the College Campus. As these High Schools are pretty well matched in athletics, these games are always interesting. Come out and support the High School. Game will be called at 1.30. Admission 25c. Slater will play M. V. C. second team also. 25c will pay for both games.

The Athenians (Sophomore Literary Society) gave a good open session program Friday afternoon consisting of music and a farce. Miss Berta Rasse and Lonnie LaRue played piano solos, Miss Ruth Rose sang and Speed Leonard played one of his ever popular violin selections. The farce "The Jack Trust" under the direction of Miss Clemens and Mrs. Yaney, was full of interesting and amusing situations. The parts were exceptionally well chosen. Lonnie LaRue, Lord Jack Townley, was the object of much anxiety and adoration on the part of Misses Clorinda DeCursy and Jennie Patre (Catherine Jester and Virgin in Young) maidens who were stricken by the fascinating charms of Lord Jack. Neil Newton, as Mrs. Boothby, a deaf and dumb woman caused much consternation by revealing her identity as Lord Jack's wife. Mildred Taylor as Miss Eulah Otis, made her part "a relic befo' de wab" very realistic. Gladys Fultz as Maria, the maid with a head of her own, played her part very well. Altogether the whole program was a success and the Sophomores are to be congratulated.

His Auto Here.

C. L. Reppenhagen brought his new automobile down from Kansas City Monday, making a run of 115 miles in 7 hours, in spite of much mud. It is a 20-horse power International Auto Buggy and cost him $900. He says to tell his farmer friends that when they meet an auto not to stop their horses but to go right ahead and the horses will not scare nearly as easy and be past in a minute. It is good advice.

Under False Colors

We notice from the Miami News that Wade Little of the upper Miami bottom took in the Bryan dinner at Kansas City last week. We also notice the name of Tom Godman a neighbor, absent from the list of those who went. We are satisfied that the whole thing is a mixup—that if Mr. Little went to the dinner it was to get a good square meal and not a "feast of words" and that if Mr. Godman stayed away he was "sick unto death" which we know he wasn't. Brother editor, don't get a good Republican into bad repute and don't sleight your friends!

Not a Hospital.

Dr. A. C. Putnam, of South Lafayette, wants it understood that he is not running a hospital but treats his patients at home. Monday morning he found a big litter of fine pups about a month old in his stable. He thinks their mother brought them there for medical attention, but they are not the kind of patients he wants.

Wm. Kellet, of Mt. Leonard is reported seriously ill.
